NEW STOBHILL HOSPITAL

Great strides in medicine are encouraging the establishment of new hospitals and healthcare facilities geared to improving patient treatment. Baxter & Gillespie is able to meet the exacting demands of a progressive, modern health service. Spacious public areas, wards and operating theatres carry the firm's signature. The new Stobhill Hospital in Glasgow highlights Baxter & Gillespie's ability to achieve painting and decorating excellence on a large scale.

The new Stobhill hospital decoration package was approximately £1 million, completed within 12 months and handed over with zero defects. The perfect delivery.

Contractor: Balfour Beatty

Project Director: David Cairns.

Scope of works: Ames taping, decoration and sterile coatings to theatre areas.

The company was highly commended by Balfour Beatty.
