STAFF HEALTH & SAFETY

Health and safety issues have never been more important. Greater focus on the working environment places increasing demands on businesses. As a responsible employer, Baxter & Gillespie ensures that all on-site workers are fully trained and holders of CSCS cards and supervisors have SMSTS. Regular courses keep staff updated, while operators of specialised equipment receive intensive training. A willingness to develop new painting and decorating techniques and a commitment to improving worker skills keep safety at the heart of company projects. Combined with pro-active management, the team aims to deliver complete customer satisfaction.

- First-class apprenticeship training
- CITB training and investment in staff
- CSCS-trained
- SMSTS management
- IIF - Incident and Injury-Free trained
